PUBLISHED EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR AT NOS.

SUNDAY, JULY 8, 1894.

red at the Post-Office at New York as Second-

TERMS-POSTAGE PRES YORK CITY LIMITS), CANADA AND MELICO. Daily and Sunday, One Month ... Daily Only, One Month.... Evening, One Year Evening, One Month Semd- Weekly, One Year

COUNTRIES IN THE UNIVERSAL POSTAL UNION.

Daily and Sunday, One Year. $15.50

Daily and Sunday, Per Month. 1.10

Daily Only, One Year. 11.00

Bunday, One Year. 11.00 Semi- Weekly, One Year ...

POSTAGE RATES ON THE WORLD. 16 pages, 1c. 32 pages, 2c. 48 pages, 3c. Foreign Rates Double.

Address all communications, whether concerning ents or subscriptions, to THE WORLD.

BRANCH OFFICES: WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE, Junction of Broad way and Sixth Ave. at 51d St. WORLD HARLEM OFFICE, 125th St. and Madi-BROOKLYN, 509 Washington St. PHILADELPHIA, Inquirer Office, 949 Cha

THE WORLD'S Average Circulation For June, 1894. 462,522 For June, 1891, 311,635 per day. Gain in Three Years, 150,887 per day.

Readers of THE WORLD leaving the city for the hot months should send in their nummer addresse

The explicit and ample authority under which the President acted in ordering Federal troops to aid in enforcing the national law is given in the extracts from the Revised Statutes printed on this page. It is not only lawful for the President to employ either the militia or the regular forces to "suppress insurrection, domestic jailed for the frauds? But the latest violence or combinations or conspiracies which obstruct or hinder the execution of the laws,'' but the statute says "it shall be his duty" to take such measures. President CLEVELAND right in declining to split hairs with Gov. ALTGELD over the matter. It is a time for action, not for discussion.

Vigilant was beaten again yesterday by Britannia. The course was the same as that sailed on Thursday. The sails of the American vacht set better, but the Britannia won a fair race in a fair contest, though Capt. CARTER, of the Britannia, frankly says : "I think the Vigilant is the faster boat." The victory seems to have been the result of better handling, greater familiarity with the course, and the time allowance in favor of the English boat.

The Tariff bill has been sent to con-The conferrees of the House are Willson, McMillin, Tunner and Montnows and PAYNE, Republicans. This is a committee that is likely to insist on Democratic principles against Gorman ized McKinleyism. Chairman Willcourage and hope.

The Ways and Means Committee recommends non-concurrence in the Sen- the system exists. It has made demon - There are of course real sportsmen who of melody and soul-refreshment ap - Around a round of Western steak, ate tariff "amendments." If the stration of all its methods by their practure not ynchtsmen, but then they do proaches, and Verbi and Wagner and House will stick to that text the tical application. It has secured the not own yachts and pretend to be sailor the younger masters shall come, with it grandly flows and ebbs. "hold up" will get no booty.

There can be no reform in municipal politics until blackmailers are punished as the felons they are. Sing Sing alone can bring relief to New York City.

ALTGELD says he has ample military force. Why then does he not stop the rioting, arson and murder?

this amount $2, 227, 617 was collected in portant Treasury officers, as well as in Now, the Prince of Walls went to see this city. This inheritance tax is one breaking up the nefarious conspiracy Lord Rosenzay's horse run at Newmar- was a cyclone cellar, but he may yet a large which is has exposed, against this city. Under the State in- only to select the worst of them for generally, but this was his own yacht two-thirds of the total amount col- conspiracies. lected. Is this "discrimination?" Is it not rather true that the taxes are paid here because the inheritances are here? And if New York shall pay a on the railroads. History that must be known to Deps and his associates is simply repeating itself. There is always in a large city a dangerous element that is sure to come to the front in times company would a contract that the of disorder. It was just as certain that rioting, assaults and destruction of the railroads be more sacred?" property would follow a railway strike in Chicago at this time as it is that a carload of combustibles will take fire it a torch is thrown into it. The Debses supplied the torch; the Anarchists, the thieves, the "toughs" and the young hoodlums have done the rest.

For the conflict vesterday in which lives were lost the strikers will bear the brunt of the blame. They may be and probably are innocent of the worst of the excesses that have occurred. But at such a time it is imposthe wind they will be held responsible for the whirlwind that is being reaped.

The law must be sustained. Order must be restored. Commerce must be uninterrupted. The mails must move. Whoever stands in the way and gets burt invites his fate.

It behooves all labor organizations that are asked to join a purely sympa- in crowded cars, to gasp for air, to hang It is pleasing at this time, when the the consequences of their act, both to forts that can be sold for five cents. their members individually and to or- And Col. HAIN says: "It's no use sandra no warrant for these evil prophrather than blind folly.

WHO IS TO BE JAILED?

It is now clear that the Ordnance Bureau is implicated in the armor-plate candals. The proof is positive and complete. The rascalities were committed with the aid of agents of the bureau, and the bureau itself must choose between a plea of utter incapacity on the one hand and in that direction so as to make it embrace officers of the Government where before it seemed to be confined to men in authority in the Carnegie shops.

Treasury.

worse feature than this, that it was one in it?

Chinese laborers from coming into the true sportsman is not a pretender. If land to prove to those who have watched GOMERY, Democrats, and REED, Bun- country. Under protection of its pro- he likes horses he breeds them, owns with pride their achievements abroad visions an elaborate speculation in them and runs them, and if he likes that they are worthy of their European Chinese immigration has been organ- sailing he owns yachts. If he owns laurels, ized, with connections in the customs yachts he prefers yacht-racing to any Take courage, then, ye that are service, with railroad alliances and with other sport in the world, for it is the weary of the discordant sounds arising universe" if she had had time. son's ringing speech was full of both a complete system of perjury for its sport that is least open to the objection from a city that has been much afflicted plant. actual importation of an invoice of men. Chinese laborers through this smuggling Above all things, a true sportsman is agency; it has presented the facts and chiefly interested in the performance of Gorr's cross-examinations and the We'd like to brave the office heat, smooth to the Secretary of the Treasury; his own borse, his own boat, his own babel of a repentant city.

With sureness underneath our feet;

months past. this State last year was $3, 297, 418. Of and probably in the prosecution of im- dental.

New York, ' an unjust discrimination cluding undesirable Chinamen serves likes horses generally better than yachts heritance tax the city pays more than importation by corrupt and corrupting and another man's horse, and if he

THE COMMON SENSE OF IT.

It is a breath of common sense and common honesty that Grand Master WILKINSON, of the Brotherhood of contracts. He says, with the convincing emphasis of absolute truth: "If a business contract is not sacred between a milroad company and a car

The very demand made by Dges is destructive. If it were granted it would be upon terms which must vitiate all agreements, including that by which it was granted.

His own and other old-time labor orextended financial aid to the Pullman than cut or rubbed out. strikers. But they are not ready to abet rebels, law-breakers and crimisible to discriminate. Having sown nals in order to show their sympathy. Their example is worthy of imitation,

HELPING RAPID TRANSIT.

The Manhattan Elevated took off ten monopoly to compel its patrons to ride ing pictures. That is final.

It is probably "final" in another brilliant. way, too. It helps real rapid transit. It is another object-lesson of Manhattan's indifference to the comfort and begun at the Metropolitan Opera-House Gov. Altgeld's second letter to Prest- ing for. He was told. "Why," said he, rights of the people. It is further proof on Nov. 1, 1894. For this Mr. that another system under another Anney has engaged Mme. Melba, Miss management is needed at once.

It is practically settled that a plan Lessan, sopranos; Signora Mantelli, will be prepared by the new commission contralto; Tamagno and DE RESZKE, a confession of connivance on the other.

The question still is, Who is to be to be submitted to the people at the tenors; MAUREL and ANCONA, barielection in November. Manhattan is tones; DE RESZKE and Plancon, bassos, doing its best to make the vote in favor and MANCINELLI and BEVIGNANI, con of it unanimous.

reputation of a true "all around" gaged for this a company of world- was in daily session. is not only right in his action, but he is THE CHINESE SMUGGLING CONSPIRACY. sportsman. But is his delight justi- famous artists. Herr ALVARY, whose Senator Call, of Florida, denies that he The World has unearthed a great of- fied? What is a true sportsman? Is popularity among lovers of opera in this chamber. He complains that the press ficial scandal, and to-day it lays the a bookmaker a sportsman? Are the city is firmly established, will return to has been "socking it" to him. facts before the public as it has already pale-faced clerk and the cigarette- us. By the courtesy of Emperor J. S. Coxey has not been summoned to laid them before the Secretary of the smoking office boy who frequent the William of Germany. New York will testify before the National Good Roads pool-rooms sportsmen? Are the young have the privilege of listening to Frau Conference at Asbury Park. He has The Chinese Exclusion act has always women who sit on the grand stand and Rosa Suchen, the famous soprano of been condemned in all open minds be- bet gloves and candies and dollars the Royal Opera-House, Berlin. In cause of its injustice and cruel illib. sportsmen? Can any one be said to be short, the most enthusiastic and critical when the Regius Professor of Law was erality of race prejudice. But The a true sportsman who is on the turf or Wagnerian may rest assured that the World has long suspected that it had a elsewhere for what gambling there is works of his master will be interpreted ten to say, sir, that he is Charley Fry of those laws whose chief effect is to ia - A sportsman, to a sound mind, is a rank and of world-wide fame.

t has secured a number of arrests, and dog, or whatever may be the kind of t has placed in the hands of the sporting property in which he invests. Treasury officials all the records of these He does not go to a baseball match smuggling transactions for many while his colt is running a race. If he does be thereby shows that he has no It is a rarely interesting story of true sporting blood in his veins, for a It appears from a report of Comptrol- adroit detective work that is told in our sportsman wants to win. First he ler Roberts to the Constitutional Con- news columns to-day. It has already wants to win the race, and is most invention that the total amount of the borne fruit in important arrests. It tensely eager over that; then he wants collateral inheritance tax collected in will presently result in the dismissal to win his bets, but the betting is inci> cavity in which he has been deposited agree with MoKINIET that it los ket on the day that his own yacht, national income tax as a "blow at abrogate a law which so far from ex- with Vigilant. It may be that he generally, but this was his own yacht and another man's horse, and if he had been a true sportsman he would "Whenever, by reason of unlawful obhave been on the deck of Britannia in- structions, combinations or assemblanes stead of 'laying' wagers on Ladas. Perhaps the Prince is as much of a States, it shall become impracticable sportsman as a statesman, but that does in the judgment of the President, to en not help him. There are men who force by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings the laws of the United woman would realize early that wrinkles are nature's penalties for frowns, how much more smiling and calmness there might be in the world! To face the small worries of life with

Debs organization might secure with an unruffled brow is a better recipe for preserving beauty than was ever comforces of the United States, or of either bined by a chemist. Amiability and placidity are emollients for the skin as well as softeners of the character.

Wrinkles that honestly go with age are another thing. It is not easy to es-Mr. WILKINSON is convinced that cape the hieroglyphics of Father Time such a strike is as directly inimical to on the parchment that covers the face. organized labor as to organized capital. They hold hints of character. They are a part of the record of a life. But is running a long way behind his name. ganizations, he says, would gladly have premature wrinkles are better kept off

THE OPERATIO MILLENNIUM.

Cassandra, whose melancholy voice half. has been doing a vast amount of croak - It's an ill wind, &c. Chicago now ing in recent years, was fond of pre- has no time to think about her baseball dicting not long ago that the rivalry in this city between German and Italian to give way to Debs, Disorder and Dismore trains on Friday. This makes grand opera would eventually drive integration. travel by its lines slower than usual and away the song-birds of the earth and J. Sloat Fassett wishes to prove that as uncomfortable as it can well be. It leave the metropolis to the more or less it is only a few years from shirt-sleeves is the pleasure and the profit of this tender mercies of comic opera and liv. to shirt-sleeves, thetic strike to consider well in advance on straps, to experience all the discom- pessimist and the iconoclast are in high feather, to learn that not only had Casganized labor. It is a time for deliber- for the public to howl. We are used to ecies, but that on the contrary the outation, not heat-for open-eyed wisdom kicking. We have taken the trains off look for a successful opera season in and will keep them off for sixty days. which both schools of music shall be ably represented is at this moment very

As the matter has been finally arranged a season of Italian opera will be world. dent Cleveland is the most striking exhibit of querulous impractibility on SIRVE SANDERSON and Miss ZELIE DE the York baby.

ductors. On Feb. 1, 1895, a season of German opera will be inaugurated at the cago was peaceful even when the Board The Prince of Wales delights in the Metropolitan. Mr. Damrosch has en- of Lady Managers of the World's Fair next season by artists of the highest uncle"-Charley Fry being one of the cilitate and induce the surreptitious man who loves the physical and in- That the coming operatic season will It is said of Alboni that she "warbled had told me the story above recounteddoing for bribes and blackmail of the tellectual excitement of participation in not be glorious through the efforts of like a bird all day long." She used to st very things they purport to forbid, sports and the vigorous and wholesome A searching investigation, including competition. He loves to ride a steeple-names mentioned above will show. some practical experiments, has shown chase himself or to follow the hounds, Sibyl Sanderson and Zelie De Lussan, joining her villa was ruised a thousand The Tariff bill has been sent to conference after a vain attempt on the part this suspicion to be in exact accordance or to shoot at birds and bigger game. It wo American girls who have won this suspicion to be in exact accordance or to shoot at birds and bigger game. In a word, he loves to do things with triumphs in the operatic centres of the her great size, referred to recently in The law is intended to exclude his own muscles and his own brain. A Old World, will return to their native this column, her body became so is of being in the hands of the gamblers of late with cacophonous confessions We'd like to nig the morning roll. The World has not been content to and the one in which a real sportsman and the yap of the men and women And let our coffee chest the sont, secure morally satisfactory proof that can take most effective part himself. who have been found out. A season And unmolested comfort take palpitating and seductive strains, to We'd like to view the mountains grand, heal the rasping racket made by Mr. With safety everywhere on hand;

> There is nothing crookeder than the traight-ticket scheme.

We do not deny that Gov. ELOWER To take the place of them that shirk; may have all the political foresight his A chance to barter in a tribe admirers credit him with But what Our brain or brawn at market-price; admirers credit him with. But what does it profit the seventh son of a sev- lis way along this road, so full enth son to be born with a caul and without a backbone? At first Prof. HARRISON thought the

MID-WEEK NOTES FROM LONDON. THE PRESIDENT'S AUTHORITY.

President, and it shall be his duty, to ake such measures, by the employment or by other means, as he may deem necessary, for the suppression of such insurrection, domestic violence or com-

PERSONAL AND PERTINENT.

Things might be worse, Mrs. Lease

Miraocau Lamor Towns, of Prooklyr

Debs says that he is gaining ground.

It is sad to think that Gov. Waite, of Colorado, has a wife but not a better

Mr. Pullman bore up well under the Compared with her present state, Chino data that are not nonsersed by other drawing-room-car passengers. In the encaenia at Oxford last week, most famous of modern Oxford athletes.

in her garden and sing as she worked a wieldy in her last years that she res ally had to be helped to rise. The great darning stockings that it was said sho

The while that, law-restrained but fre

Things more like what they used to be,

In fact, we'd sometimes like to se

We'd like to work or not to work,

Of pits and traps and webs.

We'd like to have the people free

To ride or not to ride, you see;

To take a Pullman if they can-

With kind permit of Debs!

If not, to use a cheaper plan; But whether strikes be lost or won,

We'd like to have the train go on,

Before we heard of Debe

news that William T.

him hard names.

continues to hold her tongue.

club.

'Debs of Despair."

The People and Parliament and the Birth of the Royal Baby-Is There Any Real Democratic Feeling in England!-Gladstone's Farewell to Public

(Special Correspondence of The World.)

LONDON, June 19.-We in the United

Life - The Prince of Wales " in Mufti."

tary legislative principle are so conthat if the English people had any sense and deplore the purely hereditary nature of the House of Lords and would remedy

So the hereditary system, at times,

SMILES BETWEEN SERMONS.

Possibly the only advantage an India

rubber man has in a museum or circus is that it doesn't surprise him when he's bounced by the manager,-Philadelphia

The most wise looking being on earth is the young doctor treating his first look. He knows there is nothing in it .-

"It's a good thing people are not

"Mary Jane," said the rector, solemnly case. Subsequently he modifies his wise

BALLARD SMITH.

paid here because the inheritances and mannet shall be because the inheritances and mannet shall be because the inheritances and the following the property of the income tax will be property the statesmen of two centuries before laws of the United States, or the due execution thereof, or impedes or obstructs the due course of justice under

It is a curious people. To the casual to do so, as between the clamor for a "We must meet it wi single chamber, without even the restraining power to pass up a constituOh, no; but you will almost complete. The cry of mending tional questions that is lodged in our of the militia or the land and naval or ending the hereditary House of Lords Supreme Court, and the stolid resistance nor will you insult Russia as is cuswould seem to be aimost the unanimous of the majority of their own class against would seem to be almost the unanimous of the majority of their own class against voice of the "commor" people. Perhaps it is; but there is not a single argument, deduction, fact or prejudice against the seems no way of "ending" the House of existence of a hereditary chamber which s not, logically, as applicable to the land shrinks from that. Some Frenchman hereditary monarchy. When, however, has said that "England does not revolu-Kier Hardle expressed this truism in Parliament to-day he not only got not tralized the power of the monarch. That another vote on his motion indirectly is most likely what will be done with the expressing that idea, but he was howled political power of the House of Lords own not less vociferously by the Tory within the next half decade. But will benches than by his Liberal colleagues, not such quasi abolition, without provid-Not one of his fellow-labor members ing a substitute to check hasty legisla-voted with him. Of course he is a very tion of the popular bedy, work as much stupid and conceited demagogue, and lil to the ultimate public welfare as does the plague of locusts in New Jersey, and some of the terms of his speech were now the purely Tory committee which brutal enough in connection with the the present upper chamber really is? pirth of this royal infant,

I have recently heard an amusing the average English cockney pays to more rank as compared with any other case of the new Lord Coleridge—some not constitute advice I wish to offer will The man who wasn't cured of catarrh calls the Don Quixote of Disorder the "Beneath the rule of men entirely great the pen is mightler than the Princers or any of the royal children sword." Altgeld is not entirely great. will be coming out for a drive.

The fact that Santo, President Carnot's assassin, has asked money of President Casimir-Perier breaks the record for all Chlongo has frequently proved that she can be more kinds of a centre of dis- sumably within every civilized man's turbance than any other city in the month. He wants to say "Ah, Goo!" to present crisis until he heard the awful that his costume was such as would that his costume was such as would have grievously shocked any of our own young aristocrats who pattern themselves upon the London clique, for which its Royal Highness sets the fashion. In the New York Life of a year or so in the House, the passage of a bill said the many human bipeds can this be said. solves upon the London clique, for which its Royal Highness sets the fashion. In the New York Life of a year or so back there was a funny sketch of a fashionable gentleman with a monocle and a draw; who had plunged into the sea to reseue the daughter of a Chicago millionaire. As he came out, dripping, with his fair and fainting burden, her father russied up and exclaimed: "Sir, you have saved my daughter's life, Is you have saved my daughter's life, Is In all this, too, our American Gilbert (C. S. Carskill, N. Y., July 2. gravely surveyed his interlocutor from head to foot, and said: "Yes, my dear man; never again appear in public with tall but and a sack coat." Well, I was walking along Pall Mall with a distinguished New York lawyer.

Emperor William of Germany will Why should you. He ain't no Prince," visit Queen Victoria at the end of the replied the loyal Britisher.

We had passed the waiting crowd in can't afford to keep a yacht.—Boston We had passed the waiting crowd in front of Mariborough House, and he first told me the story above recounted—which was new to me, whatever it may be to your readers. We turned up St. James's street and saw the Prince alighting hurriedly from an ordinary hansem. He handed up his shilling and almost ran around the corner towards Mariborough House gates. Why he did not drive quite up to them I do not know; it could hardly have been from any mauvaise honte because of his angest day of the design of the metropolis to keep a yacht.—Boston "high-toned" papers of the metropolis together. It expected upon helpless prisoners in the Elmira Reformatory under the regime of "Paddler" Brechway, and down-trodd in humanity than all the "high-toned" papers of the metropolis together. It expected upon helpless prisoners in the Elmira Reformatory under the regime of "Paddler" Brechway, and down-trodd in humanity than all the "high-toned" papers of the metropolis together. It expected upon helpless prisoners in the Elmira Reformatory under the regime of "Paddler" Brechway, and found it is after the douters of the chambers Street Hospital, who are charged with both brotably and extortion. Whenever, "Life.

A barber in Detroit was knocked as the object least the object least the object least the douters of the regime of "Paddler" Brechway, and found it is after the douters of the regime of "Paddler" Brechway, and found it is after the douters of the regime of "Paddler" Brechway, and found it is after the douters of the regime of "Paddler" Brechway, and found it is after the douters of the regime of "Paddler" Brechway, and found it is after the douters of the regime of "Paddler" Brechway, and found it is after the douters of the regime of "Paddler" Brechway, and found it is after the douters of the regime of "Paddler" Brechway, and found it is after the douters of the regime of "Paddler" Brechway, and found it is after the douters of the regime of "Paddler" Brechway, and found it is after the douters of the regime of "Paddler" Brechw but told me the story above recounted which was new to me, whatever it may be to your readers. We turned up St. dunno. Maybe his father was a truck driver,"—Life. any mauvaise houte because of his at your house yesterday. Anything plebelan equipage. Howbelt, the cabman serious? Gasser-I should say so! He pocketed his shilling with seemingly not wanted to collect his bill.-Brooklyn singer was so fond of the homely art of the slightest interest in his passenger and turned his horse up the street name. That was at just 2.45 in the afternoon. The papers next morning anpostneed that the Prince had been summoned from his temperary home, Cowagin Pork, Virginia Water, at 3; tha by Kinpped at Mariborough House for a ment only on his way to Richmond that when we saw him he was agitatedly harrying, as would any other ordinary expectant grandfather, to be present on the momentous occasion. But this for our long-frocked and trouser- treated nowadays as Ananias was for turned dudes-I am forced to say that lying," "Why?" "Why, if we were, he helr apparent to the throne of the Albert, nobody'd be left alive but you firstish Empire not only wore a tall silk and 1, and you'd be paralyzed."-Home hat with a sacit coat, but he wore the Journal. worst-fitting gray trausers I ever saw n a man even aspiring to be fashion-of the Prince of Wales.

"the steak is cooked to a crisp and the ble, and they flapped about his shoe potatoes are raw. You have left'undone like the ducks of a man-of-war's man, the things that ought to be done, and I might not be believed in asseverating cooked too done the things that ought all this, because I am as much a Radical not to be done."-Indianapolis Journal. in principle us is Kier Hardle himself. and might be prejudiced to enlarge upor Trinity's Brenze Doors. the troth when a Prince is concerned. (From the Philadelphia Record.)
The Astor memorial bronze doors for But my companion, great lawyer as he ie, is habitually a stickler for correc fife.

Times.

Picayune.

Trinity Church, New York, are nearly dress, patronizes Poole, and expressed completed. They are the work of comhimself as greatly surprised at His completed. They are the work of com-petent artists and have cost three years' abor and fles,000. As a gateway to devotion bronze doors are no doubt ap-propriate, gladdening the eye of the ar-tist and cultivating a taste for the beauti-ful, but it is a happiness to know they do not har the entrance to the narrow Royal Highness's careless attire. He will verify every detail of my startling intelligence and the absolute identification of humor the legislative House of Lords To the Editor of The World:

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Half a Loaf Is Better Than No Bread.

Would long since have been abolished I have been induced to write these few that reason flore. The ridiculous truths with a view that, should you Marquis of Allesbury figuring as a legis- indorse them, you publish them to the lator, whose vote would have had as much world through the medium of your weight as that of Gladstone on the final passage of the most momentous bill; the long array of bankrupt peers, whose money troubles have come about by the States Senate, one of my most intelli-

WELL-S

The Clyde

the M

the cli

shore; mark-

this si distant official mensu

yacht.

cutter

Imm

ent: "We Shall We Bluff Russia!

it effectively if they could see their way to do so, as between the claimor for a "We must meet it with equal resolu-

Oh, no; but you will not so meet the Kizeminski case. You will not swagger nor will you insult Russia as is customary with England and poor little Chill when difficulties arise.

You will accept the situation because you well know American bluster would not be tolerated at St. Petersburg and you have taken the measure of the Russian bear.

Greaham may write a mild despatch, perhaps two, but the poor Russian-American will remain in Siberia. No, the United States Government will not be ruise or Impertinent when addressing the Autocrat of All the Russias. Quite the reverse, Mr. Editor.

New Brighton, S. I., July 5.

A Plea for the Birds, or of The World:

A recent number of your paper told of how the farmers, in default of any livelier hope, were girding themselves to However, there was never a more sibly the multitudinous foe has already farcical commentary upon the hereditary the average English cockney pays to mere rank as compared with any other possible distinction of character or public service. Any afternoon that the Prince of Wales or the Princess is in residence in London you will see a considerable crowd of men and women attending, sometimes for hours, on the payement opposite the gates of Mariborough House. They are waiting there is no precedent, whether he dignity of the title, and it is a very mooted question, for which will be coming out for a drive.

It was some twenty years ago, so the story goes, that a rather bumptious fellow-citizen of ours passed that way, Gen. Grant was President of the United States, and his name and fame as the greatest saidler of the time was presumably within every civilized man's knowledge. Our countryman asked of one of the crowd what they were waiting for. He was told. "Why," said he, "we wouldn't stane waiting to see Gen. Grant come out" for the average English cockney pays to the new Lord Coleridge—some too to of the new Lord Coleridge—some to edy, but the advice I wish to offer will not come amiss, being good for all seaming not come amiss.

It is not the bary and already given him a nam and and lucrative practice in advance of the the bary not make the bary and lucrative practice in advance of the country which presuma But by the law of the land his elevation to the peerage by his father's death as this periodical plague of locusts was such as would not assume his title if he could that his costume was such as would that his costume was such as would the locust is the peerage by his father's death as this periodical plague of locusts should you? He sin't no Prince," profession and political future. It is well known that he is an extreme Radical in politics, does not believe in the hereditary rights of the Lords and would not assume his title if he could help himself. But he cannot.

But by the law of the land his elevation to the peerage by his father's death as this periodical plague of locusts ship profession and political future. It is well known that he is an extreme Radical in politics, does not believe in the hereditary rights of the Lords and would not assume his title if he could help himself. But he cannot.

So the hereditary system, at times.

Catskill, N. Y., July 2,

Euffering Humanity's Friend,

The New York World is doing more Yachting gloves are the latest fad. real good work in behalf of oppressed and down-trold a bunning than all the Gett no Even.

(Prom the Washington Star.)
"Cynthy," said Farmer Corntossel, 'everything's erbout ready fur takin' boarders from the city."

"Fur as I hin see," was the reply. "Wal, they's les one matter I wanter "Wall, they a less one matter I wanter ten' io, it's an idee I got while I was to the hotel. The next time I go ter town I wanter git some signs printed ter hang up in the hedrooms. "Whut'll ye say on 'em?" "I'll jeet hev 'em read, 'Don't try tes turn the lamp out. Blow It."

SUMMER JINGLES.

With the warming of the summer Comes the beetle from the gloom.

And he shows himself a hummer
As he blunders round the room,
With his zoom, soom, zoom,
B-z-z-zoom, zoom, xoom

Hip!

—Indianapolis Journal.

"swell" resort he found and there He reares a stately mamed hotel; but though his rales were very fair, Nor guests nor lucre to him fell.

And then he raised his rates on high Till they went nearly out of sight! He now, with scornful flash of eye, Turns guests away all day and night, —Chicago Record,

The melancholy days have come
When the canine dons his muzzle,
And man through all his waking hour
Feels beer impelled to guzzle.

— Detroit Tribune

the frie have spoi the ever town land

The human race at present,
We hereby wish to state,
Is handicapped in running
By a swelter weight
Detroit area